COMPANY WEBSITE PRIVACY POLICY

EU Regulation no. 2016/679

1) Summary of our privacy policy

Your privacy is extremely important to us, so we use the information you provide us about yourself and your company when you use the Speich S.r.l website only to respond to your request or to help us improve our service. We do not share this information with third parties except to the extent necessary to respond to your request, if such a request requires the involvement of a third party. We use return email addresses to respond to emails we receive. These addresses are not used for other purposes and are not shared with third parties.

2) The information we collect

We may collect and process the following data about you:

1. Information you provide by filling out the contact form or registration form on the Speich S.r.l. website. This includes the information you provide when you fill out our request form. This data typically includes your name, your organization's name, your location, email address, business address, and contact phone number. We may also ask you for information when you report a problem with our site.
2. If you contact us, we may keep a record of such correspondence.
3. Details of your visits to our site, which include: web server statistics, traffic data, location data, and details of the web pages and resources you access.

3) Our use of information and cookies

We use the information we hold about you in the following ways:

1. To provide you with information, products or services that you have requested from us or that we think may be of interest to you, where you have consented to be contacted for such purposes.
2. To perform our obligations arising from any contract entered into between you and us.

If you are an existing customer, we will only contact you electronically (email) with information about goods and services similar to those you have previously purchased.
If you are a new customer we will only contact you electronically if you have consented to this.
If you do not want us to use your data in this way, please contact us.
We may also obtain information about your general use of the Internet using a cookie file that is stored on your computer's hard drive. Cookies contain information that is transferred to your computer's hard drive. They help us to improve our site and to provide a better and more personalized service. They allow us to:

1. Estimate the size of our audience and usage pattern;
2. Speed up your searches and browsing;
3. Recognize you when you return to our site.

You can refuse to accept cookies by setting your browser for this purpose.
You can find more information in our cookies policy.

4) How we protect your information

All information you provide to us is stored on our secure servers. If we have given you (or if you have chosen) a password that allows you to access certain parts of our site, you are responsible for keeping this password confidential. We ask that you do not share your password with anyone.
Unfortunately, the transmission of information via the internet is not completely secure. Although we will do our best to protect your personal data, we cannot guarantee the security of the data you transmit to our site; any transmission is therefore at your own risk. Once we receive your information, we will use strict internal procedures and security features to try to prevent unauthorized access.
In addition, we keep your information confidential. Our internal procedures relate to the storage, access and disclosure of your information.

5) When we may disclose your data to third parties

We may disclose your personal data to third parties in a very limited number of circumstances:

1. If Speich S.r.l is acquired by a third party, in which case the personal data held by it about its customers will be one of the transferred assets.
2. If we have a duty to disclose or share your personal data to comply with a legal obligation, or to enforce or enforce our terms of use and other agreements; or to protect the rights, property or safety of Speich S.r.l, our customers or others. This includes exchanging information with other companies and organizations for the purposes of fraud protection and credit risk reduction.

6) Your rights

You have the right to ask us not to process your personal data for marketing purposes. We will usually inform you (before collecting your data) if we intend to use your data for such purposes. You can also exercise your right at any time by contacting us.

Our website may, from time to time, contain links to and from the websites of our customers and affiliates. If you follow a link to one of these websites, please note that these sites have their own privacy policies and that we do not accept any responsibility for these policies. Please check these policies before submitting any personal data to these websites.

7) Your consent

By submitting your data, you consent to the use of such information as set out in this policy. If we change our privacy policy, we will post the changes on this page, and we may put notices on other pages of the website, so that you can be aware of the information we collect and how we use it at all times. We will also send you an email in case of changes, so that you can consent to our use of your information in this way. Your continued use of the service signifies your acceptance of such changes.

Due to the global nature of the Internet infrastructure, the information you provide may be transferred in transit to countries outside the European Economic Area that do not have similar protections regarding your data and its use as set out in this policy. However, we have taken the steps described above to try to improve the security of your information. By submitting your information, you consent to these transfers.

8) Contact details

We welcome your views on our website and our privacy policy.

If you have any questions or comments, or if any of the information you have provided to Speich S.r.l changes, please contact us.
